"Who do you say that I am?" we hear Jesus ask his disciples today. We are his disciples as well, so we would benefit by imagining him asking us the same thing. Who do you say that Jesus is? We could do worse than echoing Saint Peter's answer: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." We know now what Peter could not at the time: that Jesus redeemed us when he died on the cross, that he was raised to eternal life with the Father, and that he is still with us today, particularly as we gather together in his name and receive him in the Eucharist. Let the "Amen" we say be our personal affirmation of Peter's answer

During your journey of faith you are gradually being formed into the image of Christ. Today, just as every believer is invited to do, you must ask yourself just who Jesus is and what meaning he has in your life. Be aware of our continued prayer as you travel this journey with the Lord. We look forward to the day when you will share in his fullness at the table of the Eucharist.
