Today we are given the chance of a lifetime: a preview of what we will face at the end of time, straight from the lips of the One who will come in glory on that day. This is Christ the King, who rules over God's creation. In today's Gospel, Jesus confides to his disciple: how he will pass judgment on us all. Keep in mind that it's never too late. Let us take heed so that we may do what Jesus expects from us. Then one day may we inherit the kingdom prepared for us from the foundation of the world.

Question of the Week:

Whom do I overlook and in whom do I fail to see Christ? How can I force myself to look past surface impressions?

PRAYER TO Christ, King of the Universe

Lord, Jesus Christ, Our Sovereign King
 the beginning and end of all things,
 You have made your Church to be a people that bears witness to the goodness and beauty of your kingdom.

By your Holy Spirit, You have united us as one body, called to live as one family of God.

Fill our hearts with your grace, that we would be close to you by being close to the vulnerable and marginalized.

Give us the patience to share one another's burdens,

And give us the courage to always be friends of the truth.

May we remain with you always. Amen
